DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 1/4/2007 have been fully considered but they are moot.

Applicant's arguments refer to the newly amended claims which are being rejected below as not having support. The prior art of Barro et al and Palmer et al do not anticipate and/or render obvious the instant amended claims. Hence, the rejections of the previous office action will not be restated at this time.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The phrase "extracting and washing the organic phase reaction product of step B at a pH of 7.0-8.0" does not have support in the specification. More specifically the indication by the claim and applicant's argument that the reaction product mixture is at a pH of 7.0-8.0 when it is being washed is not supported. There is no evidence that this claimed invention was contemplated at the time of filing this application. The specification only supports using water which is at a pH of 7.0-8.0.

The specification clearly states on page 3 and page 4 the following:

“ In contrast to the prior art teachings, however, in our process the organic phase is washed one or more times by water, and we have found that the pH of the washing water for at least the last washing must be in the range of pH 7 to 8; this pH range is necessary to achieve high purity of the epoxide”.

This statement clearly supports the proposition that the pH refers to the wash water and not to the product reaction mass.

Applicant is required to amend the claims to be consistent with the language supported by the specification<sup>1</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> Please note that applicant's amendment to the claims to overcome this new matter rejection can result in the examiner restating the 103 rejection over Baro and Palmer.
